
FOOD SERVICE HELPER

Part-time

Steuben County, New York is currently recruiting candidates for the position of FOOD SERVICE HELPER, PART-TIME at the Steuben County Jail.

The work involves responsibility for assisting in the large scale preparation and service of food and in the cleaning of kitchen equipment. The work is carried out in accordance with standard, well-established and accepted, clean, safe, and sanitary techniques and procedures. Work involves assisting with meal preparation, delivery, and/or service and cleaning and sanitizing of the kitchen and dining areas, equipment, dishes, and utensils. Work is performed under the direct supervision of a higher ranking food service/kitchen employee or supervisor, with some leeway allowed the incumbent for the exercise of independent judgment in the carrying out of routine tasks. Closer supervision is exercised over the performance of tasks that are new, unusual, or more difficult than usual. On occasion, employees in this class may perform cooking duties involving lesser degrees of skill than regularly required of employees in the classification of Cook. Does related work as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

None is required, but some experience as a helper involved in the preparation and serving of food on a large scale is desirable.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT(S)

Depending upon the assignment, "ServSafe" certification may be required at time of appointment or required to be obtained within one year from appointment.

Salary $11.93 per hour (approximately 18 hours per week)

Interested qualified applicants are invited to complete an application, which is available online at www.steubencony.org or from the Steuben County Personnel Office or the Steuben County Public Safety Building.
