Steuben County, New York is currently recruiting candidates for the position of

NURSE PRACTITIONER

This position is located at the Steuben County Sheriff's Office

The work involves responsibility for the provision of expanded clinical nursing services while functioning in collaboration with attending physicians as a member of a multi-disciplinary team. The work is carried out in accordance with standard, modern, well-established and accepted professional clinical nursing practices and procedures, as well as practices and procedures established by the New York State Health Department for the provision of medical and nursing services at the assigned location. When employed at the Jail, responsibilities include medical assessment of inmates as needed. Work is performed under the direct supervision of higher level medical authority, with some leeway allowed to the incumbent for the exercise of independent judgment and initiative both in the performance of clinical nursing duties within established medical guidelines and also in the development of treatment plans, which are subject to review before being approved for implementation. Supervision of subordinates is usually not a feature of this class of positions. Does related work as required.

MUST BE SUCCESSFUL IN A CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION AT A LATER DATE.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Graduation from an accredited two or three-year School of Nursing from a program leading to licensure as a Registered Professional Nurse, and successful completion of a Nurse Practitioner Training Program approved by the New York State Education Department.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT(S)

Possession of a current license to practice as a Registered Professional Nurse in New York State and possession of a license and current registration from the New York State Education Department as a Nurse Practitioner.
