WHEREAS, the present cabin fee at Kanakadea Park is $200 for a four night package; and

WHEREAS, park attendees rarely use the four night fee but have requested the seven night fee; and

Mr. Ryan asked can people still reserve a four-night package? Mr. Spagnoletti replied they will no longer get the special fee; they will have to pay a per night fee. Mr. Ryan asked will this help us get out of the red? Mr. Spagnoletti replied we have a budget of $230,000 and get about $54,000 in revenue, so he doesn't think this will close that gap.

RESOLVED, certified copies of this resolution shall be forwarded to the County Manager, County Attorney, Sheriff, Probation Director, District Attorney, Public Defender, and Conflict Defender.

Mr. Van Etten stated he understands why Mr. Ryan is voting no because this was pushed down to us by the State in a very rushed scenario. He doesn’t think we can go forth without commending the Sheriff, District Attorney, Public Defender and the County Manager for putting together a program that is the least painful. At the end of the day, we are meeting the requirements of the State and the Office of Court Administration.

Mr. Ryan stated he agrees and as he stated in committee this morning, that everyone has done a tremendous job of making this work. However, he philosophically does not agree.

Ms. Fitzpatrick stated the Magistrate’s Association has been working on this for a long time and have put forth effort into a plan that works for all of us and abides by the rules of the Constitution of the State of New York.

Mr. Mullen commented with the STC resolutions, it is very heavy on the east side of the County and maybe next year you could consider putting someone on from the western side of the County. Mr. Wheeler stated that is a good point, although the attendance from individuals from the western side of the County has not been stellar, but we will look at that.

Ms. Mori reminded the Legislators that next month the Youth in Government interns will be here. If you cannot stay for the luncheon following next month's meeting, please let her know.
